If prior learning and/or life experience credit is awarded, tuition will be lowered 25 per credit, lowering monthly payment accordingly.

Payment of tuition for Ph.D. is separate and is to be paid in two payments at the time the dissertation proposal is accepted. However, it is possible to make a formal request to make three or four payments. For example, if it takes two years (four semesters) to complete dissertation, student may request to submit a payment at the beginning of each semester.
